Spotlight on Our Business Partners

Plus Inc. Is Always Giving Back

Lizzy Cathcart and David Carson, two owners at Plus Inc., are very involved with the Greenville City Center Rotary Club, which gives annual financial awards to deserving non-profits in Greenville. This year, the event was held on June 16th at The Poinsett Club in Greenville.

Lizzy nominated Legacy Early College, which is a South Carolina Public Charter School in Greenville serving under-resourced urban scholars with over 1,500 students.

Located in Greenville's West End, Legacy Early College offers a high-quality education that includes an emphasis on community, traditional values and respect. It also incorporates technology-based, state-of-the-art educational tools to help guide its students to a life of success and achievement.

David nominated Taylors Free Medical Clinic, which is a faith-based clinic whose mission is to minister to the mind, body, and spirit of the medically indigent and uninsured of Greenville County.

Taylors Free Medical has served tens of thousands of patients in need of medical care with screenings, diagnostics, and prescriptions over the years, and is an integral part of the Upstate community.

Plus Inc. enjoys recognizing the people and community organizations that help our area thrive and prosper. One of Plus Inc's core values is to be involved and give back to the Upstate community in which it serves.

WHAT IS CLOUD-BASED DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT

A System Based On Your Equipment, Office, and Business Needs

No business operates the same way, leaving a need for customized solutions. We offer several options to help improve your document workflow and document management (as well as IT services).

- Scan to Cloud—Scan paper documents directly from your multi-function printer into mainstream cloud solutions such as OneDrive, Google Drive, Dropbox, Box, SharePoint, or Docuware.
- Small of High Volume—Stand-alone and network scanners for quickly converting small or high volumes of paper documents to digital files (PDF, TIFF, etc.)
- Smart Software—Software applications that index and use Optical Character Recognition on your documents for quick retrieval. Perfect for when you can't remember the file name — just type in a keyword and the application helps you find it.
- Editable PDFs—Professional PDF applications that allow full editing features, like adding or removing text, redaction, encryption, or combining documents, for all your PDF files.
